

Community Commission for Jewish Education, UJF

Promoting A Safe Environment in the Classroom

with Rabbi Mark Dratch*

The session will explore ways of “proper” teacher/student behavior in order to support an environment where educators conduct themselves responsibly and effectively. The session will address the wrongs of professional improprieties, as well as the legal responsibility of educators in identifying signs of child abuse.

February 16, 2006

6:30 PM

held at the Jewish Community Center

**RABBI DRATCH is the founder and CEO of JSafe: The Jewish Institute Supporting an Abuse Free Environment. He was educated at Yeshiva University and served as a congregational rabbi for 22 years. He was Vice President of the Rabbinical Council of America, is chair of its Task Force on Rabbinic Improprieties, is a member of the Clergy Task Force on Abuse of Jewish Women International, The Jewish Advisory Board of the FaithTrust Institute, and the Editorial Board of the Journal of Religion and Abuse.*

This workshop was made possible by The Mimi and Saul Cohen Teacher Learning Center (TLC) Fund.

For more information and to RSVP, please call Ilana De Laney, CCJE Director, at 321-1373, ext. 114 or ilana@ujf.org.